

The background of the flyer is decorated with various watercolor illustrations of autumn-themed elements. At the top left, there are large, vibrant leaves in shades of orange, red, and yellow. To the right, there are clusters of small, round berries in purple and red. In the center, there are acorns with their caps. Below the acorns, there are more clusters of purple berries. On the right side, there are more autumn leaves, including a large, detailed leaf with orange and red hues. At the bottom, there are more leaves and clusters of purple berries. The overall style is soft and artistic, typical of watercolor painting.
